at 1600 on Friday 22 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A chilly night, then largely dry on Saturday.

This Evening and Tonight:
It will be dry with clear spells for many of us overnight with light winds for all. It will turn chilly, especially in prone rural spots, where a touch of ground frost is possible by dawn. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Saturday:
Another chilly start to the day, especially in rural spots. However, it should be a largely dry and bright day. Turning increasingly cloudy with freshening winds later in the day. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Early rain clearing eastwards on Sunday, followed by sunshine and showers. Further scattered showers Monday. Largely dry and bright on Tuesday, although turning increasingly cloudy with freshening winds later. Milder.
